

PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICE

Fort Benning, GA

(706) 545-3512 / 545-2211

FORT BENNING – Lt. Col. Thomas H. Carlisle will assume command of the 1st Battalion, 29th Infantry Regiment from Lt. Col. Robert P. Cerjan during a change of command ceremony at 8 a.m. June 14 on York Field.

Carlisle was commissioned as an Infantry second lieutenant through the ROTC program at Winona State University in Winona, Minn. His most recent assignment was as the professor of military science at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, Ariz.

Among other academic degrees, he has earned a master's degree in Defense Studies from King's College, London, England.

He and his wife, Nancy, have two children.

Cerjan has been assigned to U.S. Army Central Command at MacDill Air Force Base, where he will serve on the commander's personal staff.

The soldiers and civilians assigned to the 29th Infantry Regiment provide subject matter expertise for the development and evaluation of training programs and training manuals. The unit also provides troops, vehicles and instructors to support the training of active and reserve soldiers across the installation.

On July 18 the 29th Infantry Regiment will be redesignated as the 197th Infantry Regiment.

For more information, call the Public Affairs Office at (706) 545-3512. After duty hours and on weekends, call (706) 545-2218.

####

Home of the Infantry - Future Home of the Maneuver Center